

"HARMONY HARLS" PATRIOTIC MARCH

IF YOU'RE A TRUE AMERICAN YOU'RE ALL RIGHT

WORDS BY

H. WESTON GILL
and HARLAN P. LOMBARD

MUSIC BY

HARLAN P. LOMBARD

PUBLISHED AND FOR SALE BY
HARLAN P. LOMBARD
NORTH EASTHAM, MASS

If You're A True American, You're All Right

Words by
H. WESTON GILL and HARLAN P. LOMBARD

Music by
HARLAN P. LOMBARD

Alla Marcia

mf

There's a fierce and Where the bat - tle

f cresc.

might-y war, o'er sea and o'er the land, Our coun-try calls for he-roes true to act at her com-
ra-ges most, you'll find brave la-dies there, To aid a sick or wound-ed boy, and of-fer lov-ing

cresc.

mf

maud; And stand up for the Stars and Stripes, that to us are so dear, If you're a true A-care, Those girls will do their du - ty too, when they are called to fight, They'll wave the Red Cross

mf

f

mer-i-can, it's time to vol-un-teen. Now brave-ly stand by Un-cle Sam, Who al-ways has pro-ban-ner too, and firmly stand for right. There nev-er was a braver lot Than those same girls, now tect-ed you, Un - fold our flag and - raise it high, And let it proud-ly wave for you, You'll find our bravest give them cheer, Who firm-ly stand for - our dear flag, We love so well and hold so dear, You'll find our gallant

Soldier boys, are ready for the fight, If you're a true American, you're all right. — sail-ors, too, can show them how to fight, If you're a true American, you're all right. —

f CHORUS

Come on boys, get in line, fight for Un-cle Sam-u - el, We will give them well,"

red hot shot and shell just to make them think a spell, Then our flag, it shall wave, o'er the land and o'er the sea, If you're a true Amer-i-can, you're all right. —

